We welcomed two new members: Jane and Zuzana. Sadly, Lottie and Jeanette left us. Babies for Wendy, Sarah, Lottie and one on the way for Susan B. FCBD® sister studio status for Susan T. In May we moved from tribal to predominantly ATS® and in October all were invited by Susan to join TT as a closed troupe. Phew!

Our performance of Discovered at Pleasance hafla was filmed by Paul Sykes media company and put on youtube. This was Lotties last performance with us before emigrating to USA.

Jane's first performance with TT was at hafla in March. Our first big performance set of the year was at a wedding in May where we were fab and still talked about to this day. We scared people with swinging swords! In May we had a bizarre morning posing for photographs with dogs doing agility. This was to promote the upcoming meadows Festival and resulted in fab publicity in ESPCC and Edinburgh Evening News, STV web as well as a funny youtube clip of us.

Loli had a fab 50th party! We nearly froze our toes off at a long set at Meadows Festival but again were covered on STV website. Zuzana joined us for the first time at the Meadows and Bryar showcased her stunning sword routine. Leith Festival was fun, dancing to a packed crowd on a cardboard stage but again we had lots of good publicity on the STV web as well as Edinburgh List! Art in the Park this year was pedal powered and we danced as they pedalled beside us! But they loved us and we loved it. Our first Awaken night club was great - very atmospheric. This year the Dusherra Festival was a challenge on the tiniest, precarious stage – we still looked great and had a fabulous response.

TT had the privilege of dancing at International Women's Day where the whole troupe (minus ST) performed a beautiful set, including the new favourite and beautiful dance Mermaids Tears.

The year ended with 2 exciting sets for Christmas at St Peters and then the Hilton.
